

Conflict Support

Converge can support managers and employees who are dealing with the impacts of conflict at work and at home.

Conflict Support is provided independently to your organisation.

Every organisation and working relationship has the potential to be affected by conflicts, disagreements and relationship breakdowns. The impacts of conflict on mental fitness are real. Conflicts often begin as small issues that have the potential to develop into dislike, distrust and broken relationships that affect employee wellness and productivity.

Our Conflict Support consultants can work with you to:

- restore a harmonious workplace focused on successful and productive teams
- build stronger, more supportive relationships to positively address disagreements before they lead to open conflict
- help identify the behaviours and situations that lead to conflict
- find common ground and create a collaborative and supportive environment.

Your Conflict Support is:

- A free, confidential service
- Available to all employees anytime, anywhere

Details of your discussion will not be shared with your manager or workplace. You can read our Privacy Policy on our website.
